

I would like to say that XM radio should be allowed to air Traffic and weather information on its programming. We, the listeners, pay for this service, and we should be allowed to keep this service available to us. Thank you for your consideration

Michelle